

American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012

Enacted January 2, 2013

Individual Income Tax Provisions:

- Makes permanent for 2013 and beyond the Bush-era individual income tax rates for all brackets, except for taxable incomes over $400K single, $450K married joint, $225K married separate, and $425K HOH, which will be taxed at a new top 39.6% bracket.
- Personal exemptions and itemized deductions phaseouts are reinstated at higher thresholds of $250K single, $300K married joint, $150K married separate, and $275K HOH. Certain itemized deductions are excluded.
- Capital gains rate of 15% retained for the middle tax brackets, zero percent rate retained for the 10% and 15% brackets, and a 20% rate applies to taxpayers in the new 39.6% bracket.
- AMT exemption is permanently indexed for inflation beginning in 2013. For 2012, the exemptions are set at $78,750 for married joint and surviving spouses, $39,375 married separate, and $50,600 for single. Relief from AMT for nonrefundable credits is retained.
- Estate, gift tax and GST exclusion retained at $5M and indexed for inflation, top tax rate increases from 35% to 40%, and the portability election for the deceased spouse's unused exemption is made permanent, for years after 2012. State estate tax deduction for Federal estate return extended.
- Trust income tax rates retained for all brackets, the addition of a new top 39.6% bracket.
- Restrictions lifted for participants in 401(K) plans with Roth conversion features. Participants can now make conversions at any time (a revenue raiser).
- State and local itemized general sales tax deduction extended through 2013.
- American opportunity tax credit for qualified tuition and other higher education expenses extended through 2017.
- Above-the-line deduction for qualified tuition and related expenses extended through 2013, retroactive relief for 2012.
- Earned income credit enhancements extended through 2017.
- $500 energy credit for home improvements extended through 2013.
- Teacher's classroom expense deduction for AGI, of up to $250, extended through 2013.
- Cancellation of mortgage indebtedness on a principle residence of up to $2M excluded through 2013.
- Mortgage insurance premiums treated as qualified residence interest extended through 2013.
- Tax-free distributions of up to $100K from IRA's for charitable donation purposes extended through 2013. January 2013 distributions can be applied to 2012.

Various temporary individual income tax provisions were extended permanently, including:

- Marriage penalty relief (increased size of the 15% bracket) and increased standard deduction for married taxpayers filing jointly.
- $1K child tax credit, but not indexed for inflation.
- Child and dependent care credit: 35% credit on the first $3K of expenses for one child, $6K two or more children.
- Adoption credit, and the income exclusion for employer paid or reimbursed adoption expenses up to $10K, indexed for inflation.
- Exclusion for employer provided education assistance up to $5,250.
- Suspension of the 60-month rule for the $2,500 student loan interest deduction for AGI.
- $2K maximum contribution to a Coverdell ESA, and treatment of elementary, secondary and post-secondary expenses as qualified expenditures.
- Credit for employer provided child care facilities and services.

Business Tax Provisions:

- Section 179 dollar limitation for 2012 (retroactive) and 2013 is set at $500K with a $2M maximum investment limitation before phaseout.
- 50% first-year Bonus depreciation extended through 2013. Certain eligible property extended through 2014.
- 15-year recovery period for qualified leasehold improvements, qualified retail improvements and qualified restaurant property extended through 2013.
- Research and development tax credit extended through 2013.
- Work opportunity tax credit extended through 2013.
- Reduction of the 10-year recognition period for built-in gains of S Corporations to five years, through 2013.
- Certain other business tax provisions extended through 2013.
- Certain other energy related tax credits extended through 2013.

Note: This is not a complete list of all the provisions in the Act. Please give us a call to discuss an item in greater depth or to inquire about an item not on this list.

Disclaimer: This document represents a general overview of recent tax developments and should not be relied upon without an independent, professional analysis of how any of these provisions may apply to your specific situation. Any tax information contained in the body of this narrative was not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by the recipient for the purposes of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the Internal Revenue Code or provisions of applicable state or local law.

Copyright © January 2013, Steven E. Sender CPA, Ltd.
May not be reproduced without permission. All Rights Reserved.